The photographer had planned to be on hand as the Idahoans disembarked from the Northwest Orient airlines jet, but the plane arrived early, averaging about 550 miles an hour during the five-hour hop from Portland to Honolulu. Beautiful Weather Greets Valley Residents Upon Arrival in Honolulu

BY AL WESTERGREEN
(Hawaiian Correspondent)

HONOLULU, Feb. 19 (Delayed)
We're arriving in the sun after a short and fortunately after a wet and rainy spell. We have beautiful weather 80 to 90.

Our group, all 43, came through the trip with flying colors. We had a few pills taken here and there, but aside from the psychological factor, there was really no need for them. The trip was smooth.

We left Twin Falls shortly after 8 a.m. and arrived in Portland about noon. In Portland, a number of our couples were met and entertained by friends. The balance were transported to Lloyd's center in East Portland. There we all had lunch then the music, we left East Portland about 1 p.m. All of us had a good time of our layover's "pleas" note. There were no purchases but many swollen feet.

We left Portland about 6:15 p.m. Pacific time, arriving about 9:15 p.m. Honolulu time after a 10-hour flight. In the 10 hours, we were all impressed when the captain announced we had averaged about 550 miles per hour. After the captain announced our arrival, we were all surprised.

Mr. Rayburn busily figured some statistics and announced we were seven miles up with only another 90 miles to get down. He then had us all fasten our seat belts, and announced the cabin pressure had been reduced to 8,000 feet. The temperature was a warm 70 degrees.

Upon arrival, our busy Joe Selby was at the airport to meet us. We were then driven to the Hotel Princess Kaiulani where we were assigned nice rooms, each with our own private lanai overlooking the beach and Diamond head.

Our first morning here we were awakened through the open doors of the laundry by the sound of the surf. We then got up and went to the pool. Some of them even flew onto the lanai and into the room, begging for tidbits. Looking out the window, we saw our first sunrise view of the breakers forming. Even early in the morning, the surfers were on the beach.

Our group met after breakfast at the hotel to visit the Twin Falls and the Cecil Perkins, Standard Oil formerly of Twin Falls, who was the radio show host at the Hawaiian village. Tomorrow plan to take a walk on the beach. Can't you see us coming in on the waves on a surfboard?

While waiting in the International airport gardens to claim luggage and be entertained by the music, we lost Earl Morehouse, 60, of Twin Falls. All of us were very sorry for his loss.

Chants' please note: "There were no purchases but many swollen feet."

Andrew Will Turn Three In Ceremony

LONDON, Feb. 19 (UPI)—Prince Andrew, second in line to the British throne, marked his third birthday today without his parents.

The prince was expected to get a phone call from his mother and father, Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip, who are on a tour of Australia.

The Buckingham palace staff hoped the prince's birthday would keep the prince's mind off the absence of his parents.

Among the guests invited for a tea party were Princess Anne, Princess Margaret, Princess Elizabeth, Prince Andrew's favorite dancing class partner. She is the daughter of Conservative Member of Parliament Ian Gloumer.

Prince Andrew has never had both parents at any of his birthday parties. When he was born, his parents were in Australia. Prince Philip and Prince Andrew were touring Asia. On his second birthday, Prince Philip was in Ecuador.

Senator Hits Higher Fees For Grazing

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19 (UPI)—For grazing livestock on federal lands, should be kept at present levels while they are being investigated, Sen. Frank E. Moss, D-Utah, said today. Moss voiced disappointment at most interior department announcements that the fees would be raised about 10 cents. It is a policy of the Senate public lands subcommittee headed by Sen. Alan Bible, D-Nev.

"I am in full agreement with the decision of the department to keep fees in good condition," Moss said. "But I believe no change in grazing fees is necessary unless the conclusions of the hearings of the subcommittee."

"Chairman Bible of the subcommittee has said the former fees will be held," Moss said, adding:

"Testimony I have heard shows that fees were being charged without compensating revenues from animals. Increasing fees 10 cents can't bring in enough to operators out of balance."

California Solons Take Budget Look

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 19 (UPI)—The annual budget of the state opened today in California's legislature.

Right away, an opening shot was leveled at plans for a state withholding tax backed by Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

"It is the least desirable of the proposals he has made," said Sen. Alan Post, the legislature's watchdog on state spending.

But he hastened to say that in his view, one of the government's $2 billion dollar spending program Post had taken no formal recommendation one way or the other.

Post made his comments before the assembly ways and means committee, which met to organize.

The thing that bothers me is that a tax increase is being proposed in the legislature and the administration is covering up the fact that they're getting by for two years on windfalls," Post said.

On the other hand, the allegation by pointing to a statement by Post in his 1,010-page budget analysis that the pay-as-you-go system of financing the state's one-time pickup of about $1 million dollars in fiscal 1964-65 and that increased state revenue could be expected from Long Beach oil fields.

Cassia-Sheriff Reports Mishaps

BURLEY, Feb. 19—Sheriff H. O. Warrill office reported two accidents in the last 24 hours. At 6:15 a.m. Monday on highway 30 west of Burley.

"A 1961 Volkswagen driven by 18-year-old John W. Johnson, of Burley, was involved in a collision, overturned on its top in the borrow pit five miles west of Burley after it hit a slick spot. There was no one in the car. John and Mrs. Brown were not injured. She was cited by Sheriff Warrill for having no driver's license.

John's father, John, driven by Mrs. Lois A. Waldron, 49, Burley, went into the borrow pit 12 miles west of Burley on highway 12 and was thrown from his car too far to the right because a truck behind her started to pass and she saw another truck coming toward her.

The left side of the Plymouth was dented. Mrs. Waldron's two children, 12 and 14, were riding with her. No one was hurt.

Boy Scout Book Hunters Return With 10 Per Cent

RENO, Nev., Feb. 19 (UPI)—A boy scout is taking a break, but he can't do the impossible.

Robert Oscar, Jr., 12, son of the Scoutmaster, is taking a break from minor injuries and released from Minden Memorial Hospital after a one-car accident.

Elkhorn Scout volunteers were dispatched by the Hewlett-Woodmere—public library over the weekend to scout for lost books held by derelict adult borrowers.

The boys blazed a trail across this Long Island community and returned with 12 books.

The librarian, Mrs. Walter Thomson, who knew about the problem, said in her office, "I called the 10 per cent immediate return encouraging. The members of troupe 21 vowed to continue the search for lost books."

The missing book is "Lolita." The owner finally came out and claimed his pet and read the library's rules.

A dozen borrowers promised to look for missing books; three agreed to pay for lost books: two indicated that they had returned their books; a dozen were reported as missing by the library over successive weekends.
